

Portrait processing in Adobe Photoshop

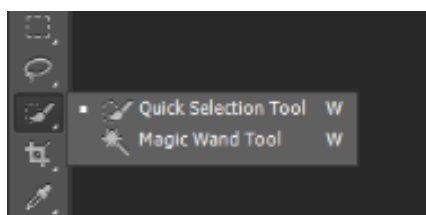

1. Open Adobe Photoshop
2. File – open – frame (portrait)
3. Portrait editing
 - a. Double click on layer background to unlock it (ok)

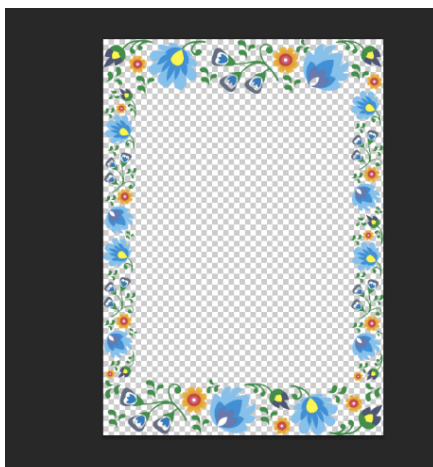

- b. Image – adjustments – choose one or more possibilities
 - i. Brightness, contrast or
 - ii. Levels
 - iii. Curves
 - iv. Hue, saturation
 - v. Color balance
 - vi. Black and white
 - c. Portrait is done

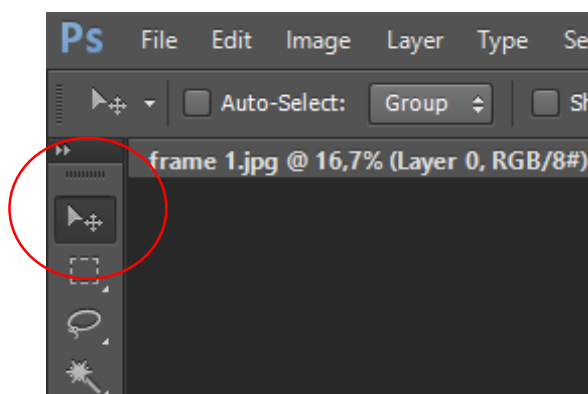

4. Frame preparing
 - a. If the background is locked, double click on layer background to unlock it (ok)
 - b. Magic wand tool

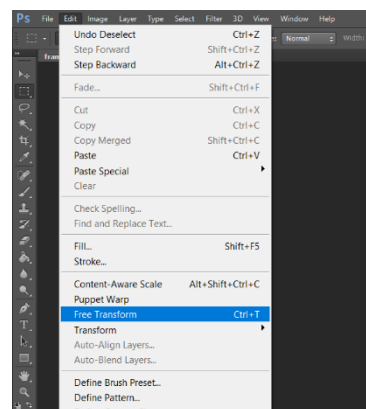

- c. Click on the white background in the picture
- d. Delete (background is deleted)

- e. Frame is ready
5. Click on portrait, select move tool and move it into the picture frame

6. Edit the size of the portrait
- a. Edit – free transform

- b. Stay on the right top corner, push shift and drag,
 - c. Confirm transformation
7. Change the order of layers, click on one layer and save as JPG (File – save as – JPG).